

The FlickDirect™ online website is owned by FlickDirect, Inc. FlickDirect™ carries a wide assortment of news, information, merchandise, and interviews from the popular to obscure motion pictures. FlickDirect owners and staff take great pride in providing our guests with the best and latest Movie information and reviews.

The FlickDirect community is developing into one of the best online. The FlickDirect community contributes to the content of the site in three ways:

The "Movie Flicking" - Registered movie fans control what gets seen on the popular front page movie news section by voting on individual movie stories to "Flick" them up the list. The more flicks a movie story gets, the higher it appears; and only popular movie stories can be promoted to the coveted front page;

Movie News gets submitted to FlickDirect! Community members can submit links to cool movie news, to a hot new movie trailer, and their own description/review. Flick community members can comment directly on the movie story page itself, they can also flick comments up and down of other members;

But wait! Not to be left out - FlickDirect also offers Television reviews!

Testimonials

"I have found FlickDirect to be one of the best online movie sites on the web. They feature a member's forum, as well as a ton of movie reviews. They also provide up to date movie news on current and future releases. FlickDirect also offers its members to "flick up" movies that we think are top draws. Combined with a monthly podcast, FlickDirect has become my one-stop source for all things movies. To me, FlickDirect is easy to navigate and understand."

- Todd Murphy, Cincinnati, Ohio

"The best thing about FlickDirect is you can get everything you need in one place: movie showtimes, independent reviews, box office results, and current entertainment news. All without visiting multiple websites!"

- Roger Longenbach, Austin, Texas

"I found FlickDirect.com in its infancy and have seen it develop into a rich source of information concerning anything to do with the movies. FlickDirect does offer anything from trailers to all the latest's and upcoming films to exclusive interviews with actors, and reviews for DVD's, and films that are in the theatres right now, written in a honest and unbiased way.

Becoming a member of FlickDirect opens the site up further, you have the ability to comment on and write short reviews of film s that you have seen for yourself, and if like me you want to go see a movie and you don't know which one to see, having seen several reviews from different members it can easily make your mind up for you. Plus this with a podcast, that keeps you up to date, while you're on the move. Most of all though members actually make the news section of the site, by supplying any movie related news to FlickDirect other members can vote for that story by "flicking" it, the more votes you story gets, the more popular it is and the most popular stories make up the front page, I like this feature a lot.

Of all the movie websites I have used over the last few years FlickDirect is the one site I go back to on a regular basis, it has everything I need on the films I enjoy, hosted in a pleasant and friendly manner that I can share with my children which I find refreshing in this day and age.

- Paul Kates, South Hampton, United Kingdom

"FlickDirect gives me a great forum to discuss all my favorite Superhero movies and catch up on the latest movie news and reviews!"

- Joe Grieco, Tampa, Florida

FlickDirect™ Management Team

Nathan M Rose, Founder and CEO

Nathan has always loved movies, but his real passion began when he saw Die Hard on video back in the late 80s. Ever since then, movies have become his life. To date Nathan has watched over 2,000 movies, and he is still counting! Nathan is also the founder of FlickDirect, Inc. and Magical Mountain, LLC. Nathan is a member of the American Film Institute, and an award winning podcaster who can be heard on our very own FlickDirect Movie Podcast.

Eric English, Founder and Creative Director

Eric English, has loved movies ever since he was a little Jedi master. Though he mainly enjoys comedies such as The Big Lebowski, and Old School, his taste in movies spans a wide genre of film. Holding a degree in Computer Science and Digital Arts - including work in 3D modeling - Eric is constantly fascinated by what they can put on the screen, and looks toward the future of film with anticipation and wonder.

Marco Chacon, Senior Editor

Marco Chacon isn't quite sure what he's doing here. Exposed to radioactive movies at a young age, he has gained the proportional strength and agility of celluloid which hasn't proved good for much. However, on the Internet, it's opinion that counts (who needs facts!); and Marco sure has one of those. Several, in fact. Some contradictory. He has written and published the JAGS RPG, which you've never heard of and, he is still waiting for Revenge of the Jedi to come out. Besides reviewing movies for FlickDirect, Marco is also the co-host of the FlickDirect Movie Podcast which comes out monthly.

Maureen Buccellato, Senior Editor

In between taking care of her husband and son, Mo has dedicated her life to Disney and films. Maureen is very knowledgeable about all things cinematic, and helps out with FlickDirect's informational content.

Bob Frazier, Director of Photography

Bob's photographic experience spans almost 35 years and has covered most of the western hemisphere, including almost every major US city, and many International locations. With experience as a Professional Photographer, a Senior Photographic Technician, a Photographic Imaging/ Processing Consultant, and a Color Management Specialist, he has traveled the globe to assist many professional Photographers and commercial photographic labs. He has slowed his current photographic career, preferring to work with smaller organizations and interesting events.

Tara Cardinal, Editor

Famous for her long thick red hair and expressive blue eyes, Tara Cardinal grew up traveling the continent with her parents (a psychic and musician). When she was 16, she left home to pursue her lifelong dream of acting. A born actress, Tara has over 50 theatre and film credits. Tara is also an avid humanitarian. When she was just 12 years old, she co-founded an anti-child abuse organization, and continues her efforts to raise awareness about child abuse. Tara is co-producing "Haunted", a feature-length film based on a true story about a woman haunted by the ghost of the person who sexually abused her.

Tara's film credits include the title role in Genius, leading role in Delivery, Dangerous Games, The Black Book, Fatal Desires, Death Knocks, I am Gary Cooper, and many more. She's performed several plays -- some written herself.
